Tri-City Council

Volume 13 Issue 1

Apr 2010

Ahoy Navy Leaguers!!!

A lot is happening this Spring with the Tri-City Council. We have two new Community Affiliates Classic Chariots and Navy Federal Credit Union, Carlsbad CA. These two community affiliates and our other Tip Top Meats, we are assured of greater participation and support of our council and Sea Cadets.

We look forward to seeing you at our upcoming dinner event which will feature Major General Anthony L. Jackson. We will be giving awards to our Coast Guard Cutter Haddock Sailor of the Quarter and our leading Sea Cadet Award to our TopGun and Gunfighter Squadron.

On March 24th Chuck Baumbach, on behalf of the Tri-City NL presented an Award to the Top Corpsman of Field Medical Training School at Camp Pendleton.

We are also giving additional JROTC Awards to a student at Army/ Navy Academy in Carlsbad and also two students at the High School's in Oceanside. Classic Chariots has generously let us co-sponsor three teams in the Camp Pendleton Mud Run in June. One of the Teams will be our Coast Guard Haddock Crew. If any members are interested in volunteering at any of these or future events please call President Chuck Baumbach, 760-942-4100 or email him at chuckgb1@aol.com.

We appreciate all Men and Women in all of the services supporting our freedom!

SAN DIEGO -- Lt. Thomas Brittingham, commanding officer of the Coast Guard Cutter Haddock, explains ship handling and navigation to members of the Sea Cadet Gunfighter Squadron aboard the Haddock in San Diego Bay, Feb. 20, 2010. The Haddock's crew hosted the Sea Cadets for a day of training including line handling and knot tying, ship handling, rescue and survival, damage control, firefighting, engineering and small boat operations.

Major General Anthony L. Jackson

Commanding General, Marine Corps Installations West

Major General Jackson is currently serving as the Commanding General, Marine Corps Installations West.

He was born in Fort Lewis, Washington. He graduated from San Jose State University, San Jose, CA, 1971. In 1973, he completed his MA (History) at San Jose State.

In May 1975, he enlisted in the Marine Corps to attend Officer Candidate School. Upon graduating from the Basic School in June 1976, he was assigned to 1st Battalion, 5th Marines, 1st Marine Division, Camp Pendleton, CA. While there, he served as a Rifle and Weapons Platoon Commander and Battalion Adjutant. In 1978, he left the regular Marine Corps; however, he continued to serve in the reserves as the Weapons Platoon Commander, "L" Company, 3rd Battalion, 25th Marines, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Upon returning to the regular Marine Corps in December 1979, he was again assigned to 1st Battalion, 5th Marines. During this tour, he served as the Assistant Operations Officer and as a Rifle and Weapons Company Commander. In February 1982, he was transferred to the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, CA. While there, he served as a Battalion Operations Officer, Company Commander, and Officer-in-Charge, Recruit Field Training Division. In June 1984, he was assigned as the Commanding Officer, Marine Detachment, USS Long Beach (CGN-9), home ported in San Diego, CA. In July 1988, he was transferred to 1st Marine Expeditionary Brigade, Kaneohe Bay, HI. While in 1st MEB, he served consecutively as a Headquarters and Service Company Commander and Combat Service Support Plans Officer in Brigade Service Support Group-1, and as the Operations Officer and Executive Officer of 3rd Bn, 3rd Marines.

After completing his tour with 1st MEB, he attended the Armed Forces Staff College, Norfolk, VA. Upon graduation in June 1990, he then served as a Senior Emergency Action Officer in the National Military Command Center, J-3, Joint Staff, Washington, DC until July 1992. Upon transfer, MajGen Jackson served as the Chief of Instructors, The Basic School, Marine Corps Combat Development Command, Quantico, VA. From July 1993 to June 1995, he was the Commanding Officer, Marine Security Forces, Naval Submarine Base, Kings Bay, GA. In June 1997, he completed an assignment as the Advisor to the Commandant of the Marine Corps on Equal Opportunity matters and as the Head of the Equal Opportunity Branch, Headquarters, Marine Corps.

In June 1998, he graduated from the United States Army War College, Carlisle, PA. Upon graduation from the War College, he was assigned as the Assistant Chief of Staff, G-7, I Marine Expeditionary Force. He served in that billet from June 1998-June 2000. He then served as the Commanding Officer, 1st Marine Regiment, 1st Marine Division. After that assignment, he was assigned to the 3rd Marine Division, Okinawa, Japan where he was the Division's Chief of Staff. During that assignment, he served concurrently as the Chief of Staff, Joint Task Force-555, in support of Operation Enduring Freedom-Philippines. From August 2003 until March 2005, he served as the Assistant Chief of Staff (G-5), First Marine Expeditionary Force and deployed in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom II. From June 2005 to September 2007, he served as the Deputy Commanding General, U.S. Marine Forces, Central Command. His last assignment prior to assuming his current command was as the Director of Operations and Logistics, U.S. Africa Command, which was located in Stuttgart, Germany.

MajGen Jackson completed both the Amphibious Warfare School and the Marine Corps Command and Staff College by correspondence.
