Ahoy Navy Leaguers!!!

Hope everyone is having a great summer! Our Sept. 3rd dinner event will be in the ballroom at the Miramar Officer's Club. Admiral William French, U.S. Navy Southwest Regional Commander, will be our Speaker. There will be at least one Surprise Guest. If I tell you who it is we would not have a room big enough to accommodate the people who would like to meet this man! The Coast Guard Cutter Haddock is getting a New Skipper, Lt. Brittingham, is going on, we wish him great success in his future. We will meet the new Lt. at the September dinner event. Please see details below. We have had very good success with the food and service at the Miramar Officer's Club. I want to thank the Board with all the help and support they provide the Tri-City Council NL. We had and plan to give out many Awards for future and young sailors who deserve it! We are having Fabulous support from our Corporate Affiliates during a difficult economic time. Classic Chariots, Navy Federal, Pacific Marine, and Tip Top Meats Thank you all for your support! Members please try to support businesses that support us. Have a Great Summer; I'll see you all at our Dinner Event in September as always Support our Troops! Chuck Baumbach President.

We appreciate all Men and Women in all of the services supporting our freedom!

We had a fabulous dinner event Major General Anthony L. Jackson was the guest speaker at MCAS Miramar . We presented awards to our Coast Guard Cutter Haddock Sailor of the Quarter and a leading Sea Cadet Award for Honor Cadet of the Year, Airman Daniel Pacheco, from our very own TopGun and Gunfighter Squadron.

Special Thanks to Classic Chariots who has generously let us co-sponsor three teams in the Camp Pendleton Mud Run in June. One of the Teams was our Coast Guard Haddock Crew.
